If you do not want a credit reporting body to use your credit related information for the purpose of pre-screening, you have the right under the Act to contact them and request that they exclude you.

If you reasonably believe you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, you may contact a credit reporting body to request that they not use or disclose your credit related information. The credit reporting body will explain to you in detail the effects of this.

Disclosure of credit related information to other recipients

We may, as permitted by law, disclose your credit related information to third parties including our related companies, agents or other third parties for the internal management purposes that are directly related to the provision or management of credit we provide. Some of these third parties may not be located in Australia and may not have an Australian link. The countries in which these recipients may be located will vary from time to time, but may include New Zealand, France and other European countries, the United States of America, and any other countries where Legrand Australia or its related entities have a presence or engages third parties. We may disclose credit related information to a debt collection agency, or where you have expressly consented to that disclosure to another credit provider or guarantor, or as otherwise allowed by the Act.

How can you access or correct your credit related information?

Accessing your credit related information

To access the credit related information we hold about you, please send a written request to the Privacy Officer. Legrand Australia will try to grant you access to the credit related information within 30 days of a request but in some circumstances it may take longer. There is no charge associated with making an access request but an administration charge may apply for providing access in accordance with your request.

Under the Act we may refuse to give access to the credit related information where for example giving access would disclose commercially sensitive information or information relating to existing or anticipated legal proceedings. If we refuse to provide you with access to credit related information held about you by us, then we will provide written reasons for the refusal and advise you of available avenues of redress.

Correcting your credit related information

If you believe that any credit related information held by us about you is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, please request its correction free of charge by contacting our Privacy Officer. Legrand Australia will try to resolve correction requests within 30 days of your making a request but in some circumstances it may take longer. If we need more time to resolve your request we will notify you as to the delay, the reasons for it and seek your written agreement to a longer period.

If your request for correction is successful, we will provide written notice of the correction to you, and where practicable and not prohibited by law, to certain other people we provided the pre-correction information (other than identification information) to such as relevant credit reporting bodies and to any other third party as required under the Act. If we refuse your request for correction, we will provide written reasons for the refusal and advise you of available avenues of redress.

You have the right under the Act and the Code to obtain your credit information from a credit reporting body free of charge if the access request relates to a decision to correct information about you. That right may be exercised by contacting the relevant credit reporting body.

How can you complain about a breach of the Act?

If you believe an act or practice Legrand Australia has engaged in has breached the Act or the Code, you can lodge a complaint free of charge by contacting our Privacy Officer. We will endeavour to contact you to confirm receipt within 7 days of us having received your complaint. Legrand Australia will try to resolve the complaint within 30 days of receiving the complaint. If we need more time to resolve your request we will notify you as to the delay, the reasons for it and seek your written agreement to a longer period. Depending on the nature of the complaint, it may be necessary for us to consult with third parties, including credit reporting bodies or other credit providers, in order to investigate and resolve your complaint.

If you are unhappy with our resolution of your complaint or with the way Legrand Australia has handled your complaint, you may refer to the matter to our external dispute resolution scheme (the Credit Ombudsman Service Ltd.) or to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (“the Commissioner”) (see <http://www.oaic.gov.au> for further details).
